

1. The Relevance of Democracy, Human Rights and Social Justice for the G20 Process: An Australian Perspective Melissa Conley Tyler and Caitlin Longden	1
2. Australian Participation in the G20 Xu Yi-Chong	11
3. Brazil and the G20: Recent Development Strategy and Strength among “New” Emerging Economies Maria Antonieta Del Tedesco Lins and Leandro Pignatari Silva	21
4. Brazil’s Contemporary Foreign Policy: An Affirmative Agenda Paulo Fagundes Visentini	31
5. Global Governance Under the G20: A Chinese Perspective Wei Huang	41
6. The Transition of China’s Development Model Ming Zhang	51
7. The Economic Agenda of the French Presidency of the G20: Context and Challenges Christophe Destais	57
8. Germany and the G20 Susanna Vogt	73
9. The G20 and Global Democracy Maria Monica Wihardja	81
10. Indonesia in the G20: Benefits And Challenges Amidst National Interests and Priorities Zamroni Salim	95
11. Global Governance: Challenges of Unpredictable Era Fyodor Lukyanov	109
12. Repositioning Saudi Arabia and the Gulf Cooperation Council States in the Changing Global Order Kristian Coates Ulrichsen	117

13. Legitimacy and Credibility: Challenges of Broadening the G20 Agenda Elizabeth Sidiropoulos	129
14. The Republic of South Africa and the G20: Its Political, National Interests and Priorities as Member of the Process Laurence Boulle	135
15. The Role of Turkey as a New Player in the G20 System Hüseyin Bağcı	147
16. Political Benefits Expected by Turkey for its Participation in the G20 İlter Turan	153
17. The Relevance of Democracy, Human Rights, Civic Liberties and Social Justice for the G20 Process Yaşar Yakış	163